

Corporate News

For Immediate Release

(Washington, DC – August 6, 2010) – Today ARG’s CEO Mr. Nadim Amin and the Claremont Group’s Stephen Lari signed an agreement towards future cooperation on development projects in and around Kabul City as well as other Afghan townships.

New York City Claremont Group combines experience, expertise, and effective management to provide the highest standards of real estate development while specializing in office, residential, lodging, student housing and infrastructure projects. Claremont develops property for its own account as either sole principal or as a managing equity partner.

Kabul-based ARG offers highly sophisticated and robust ground support to governments, international organizations and private sector clients through its extensive matrix of capabilities. These include consultancy, infrastructure, logistics and transport, procurement and staffing support, and security groups.

For more information, please contact Ms. Mihaela Moldoveanu at +93.789.001853 or by email at mihaela.moldoveanu@arg-corp.com.

--- ### ---